

Potlatch State Park: A retreat to enjoy nature.

Submitted by Patty Suskin, Diabetes Coordinator

Park overview:

Potlatch State Park is a 57-acre camping park with 5,700 feet of saltwater shoreline on Hood Canal. The park's beautiful grounds are home to a variety of activities, from interpretive programs for kids to boating and shellfish harvesting.

Park Features

Sunny days and low tides attract many to Potlatch to harvest oysters, dig for clams or catch crab and fish. The beautiful Hood Canal offers scenic views, and windy days bring out kite fliers and windsurfers. Scuba divers favor Potlatch for its accessibility and easy descent, and kayaking is a popular day-trip activity.

Driving Directions

Drive twelve miles north of Shelton on U.S. Hwy. 101 to park entrance

Park hours

8 a.m. to dusk.

Camping:

Check-in time, 2:30 p.m.

Check-out time, 1 p.m.

Quiet hours: 10 p.m. to 6:30 a.m.
